PRICE ONE CENT.

HERMANN CONFESSES TOO.

"I hope you won't insist on his auswer-ing," said Mr. Howe. "He is making a con-fession to Inspector Byrnes, and it is by that gentleman's wishes that he refuses to give agreed.

WHAT HERMANN'S WIFE SAYS.

"He rubbed his forehead and said scrape till, when I saw the account of Phil Daly in the paper, I asked him and he said that was it."

WHERE IS MR. CARTWRIGHT?

These Stories.

past few days.

"I have not seen him to-day, however," said he. "I understand that he sails for England to-morrow."

HARRISON WON KINTER A WIFE.

A Novel Wedding in Carlisle, Pa., Resulting

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7 .-- A novel wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Major Jacob Bretz, of Carlisle. The contract-

RESCUED FROM A WRECK.

Four Survivors of a Terrible Experies with Ocean Storms. The bark Artemas, from Liverpool, reached this port this morning, having on board the captain, mate and two seamen, survivors of the crew of the Ethel M. Davis, of Portland, Me., from Laguna, for New York, abandoned at sea on Nov. 29. The steward and two seamen were

One of the schooler had been disabled and had sprung aleak in the high storms.

When the four men were rescued they had been four days without food or drink and were in an unconscious condition. It was at first find Cartwright.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

THE POOR MAN'S GUIDE, THE RICH MAN'S DIRECTORY.

* "FOR SALE"

ADVIS. APPEARED IN THE World " WANT " Columns

OUTOBER 31, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1888

HANDS UP!"

Phil Daly's Drama Re-Acted at Jefferson Market.

Hermann's Mother Tries to Commit Suicide.

A General Confessing by Two of the Alleged Badgers.

Meredith Displays Some of His Iron Nerve.

Addie Stanton's Real Name and His-

Mrs. Anna Hermann, the aged mother of Henry Hermann, one of the men who attempted to "stand up" Gambler Phil Daly in Elia Hammond's flat, at 406 Fourth avenue, last Monday, attempted suicide after hear! of her son's disgrace. She tried to strangle herself with her hands. Then she fell down in spasms. She was brought too with difficulty and made no subsequent attempt on her life. Her family denied this afternoon that she had tried to kill herself. She is housekeeper in the tenement at 165 Avenue C.

About the same time Hermann was sitting in one of the examination rooms in the Jefferson Market Police Court in charge of Central Office Detective Cash, Edward Meredith, his accomplice, a bullet from whose pistol so nearly ended the old gambler's existence, was in another room in charge of Detective Sergt. Adams.

Addle Stanton was in Sergt. McComb's office making a full confession to Assistant District-Attorney Hartmann.

Ella Hammond was willing to do the same, but the chances are that her and Meredith will go to Sing Sing for long terms.

Hermann has also turned State's evidence and will be apt to go free in consequence. Such a throng was never before seen in Jefferson Market Police Court. Fast men, and faster women occupied every seat, stood up in the sisle and packed the rear of the up in the aisle and packed the rear of the court-room.

Gus Guerrero, the pedestrian; sat on a front bench. Near by stood Abe Marks, the bookmaker, and ex-Gov. Lee, of Wyoming. Gambiers were there in force, too. There was a murmur of admiration when Phil Daly, with a black silk skull-cap on his head, walked into Court by the rear entrance.

The powder marks could be plainly seen about his left eye. He was accompanied by his legal advisers. Howe & Hummel, and several of their derks and his son, Phil, jr.

He went at once to the Judge's private room where he made two complaints, one of assault in the first degree with attempt to kill, and another of robbery in the first degree.

degree.

The four prisoners in each complaint were treated each as a principal. In the complaint Mr. Daly repeats his original story about being decoyed to the flat by a letter from Addie Stanton, where he was attacked by the two masked men, who ordered him to throw up his hands and so forth.

He was confronted in court to-day first with Hermann. Detective Sergeant Crowley, who arrested the latter, hung a white hand-kerchief over his face, and made him stand up in the middle of the room.

Then, in the midst of a crowd of police esptains, sergeants, policemen, detectives, lawyers, their clerks, and reporters, Mr. Dalw walked in.

lawyers, their clerks, and reposed.

Daly walked in.

He calmly adjusted his glasses and looked steadily at the masked face before him. The room was as silent as the tomb. Every one room was as silent as the tomb.

expected to hear Daly say:

"That is the man who shot me," because he has all along maintained that it was the smaller of the two men who fired at him, but he didn't.

he didn't.
On the contrary, he said:
"I cannot say that that was one of the men.
I think it was."
It is well to mention here again that Hermann has confessed.

Then Mr. Daly was taken to the other

There Detective Hickey had masked Mere-dith with a white handkerchief. He is a tall, fine-looking fellow and wears eyeglasses. His hair is black and curiy. He dresses very ACTED OVER AGAIN IN COURT.

"Stand up," said Phil, gruffly.

The masked figure arose, as rigid as a statue.

"Now say Hold up your hands!" commanded the old sport.

A faint sound came from the hidden lips.

"Louder," said Daly.

A fainter sound was the only answer.

"Louder. Do you hear?" said Daly answer.

"Hold up your hands," came very meekly out of the handkerchief.
"That is the man. He is the one," hissed Daly, becoming visibly excited. "His voice was a little stronger, but that is the man who fixed at me," and his fingers twitched convulsively,
The handkerchief was removed from Meredith's face. He had not paled a shade.

MERROITH'S NEAVE.

In fact, there was a merry twinkle observed in the black eyes behind the glasses. He sank issuphingly back into his seat between two detectives. He was the coolest man in that crowd.

His nerve is something wonderful. He gazed defiantly at Daly, until the latter was taken away.

Meantime Lawyer Le Barbier and ex-Assemblyman James D. McCleitand were doing what they could in a legal way for the benefit of the two women. Right lars, in the midst of all the excitement, Detective Sergt Steve O'Brien led a smooth-faced, sandy-haired youth to the bar and, bearing over, whispered to Juntice Gorman: "I'd like to have this man remainded until to-morrow morning."

"Who is he? What has he done?" asked His Honor.
O'Brian looked furtively around and see

His Honor.

O'Brien looked furtively around, and, seeing two reporters near by, whispered: "We think we can connect him with the Daly

"He is remanded," said the Justice,
"Who is he, Steve?" asked The Evening World representative.
"Don't ask me."

WHAT HAS THIS MAN TO DO WITH IT? A lawyer in the case said:
"He is a crook named Julius Bauers, alias

" Yes a crook named Junus Bauers, ains "Whitey."

"But what has he to do with the case?"

"That I can't say, but I hear that he overheard the four conspirators when they were conceeding the plot last week in the Fourth avenue flat.

"I have been a crook named Junus Bauers, ains "Just Inspector Byrnes's luck," he added.
"He always finds a witness when one is needed to corroborate a seemingly weak

"Do you think the story is weak?"
"Rather, as the Inspector gives it out about chloroform, gagging, binding and all such as that being intended," he answered.

HERMANN'S WIFE AND SISTER.

Just then a rather good-looking, middleaged woman entered the court-room with another younger woman.

"That is Hermann's wife and sister," said some one, and the reporter stepped up and asked them if that was so. They admitted it, but positively refused to speak about the case. They would not even give their addrass dress.

"Why?" asked the reporter.
"We have been cautioned not to do so."
Detectives Hayes, Brett, Crowley and Hickey, who had shadowed the men for at least two days, calmly declared that they did not know where they lived. They also professed the greatest ignorance as to the previous life of the two men.
An Evening World reporter learned, however, and is able to state positively that both men are professional burglars.
They have done time. It is believed their pictures are in the Rogues' Gallery. Hermann is married. He is only out of prison five months, after doing a three-years' term for burglary. He lives at 169 Avenue C, with his wife.
"He is Ella Hermandia 't soutlemen and fidgety.

"I saw there was something the matter and asked him why he did not come back, as he his wife.

"He is Ella Hammond's "gentleman friend." He is small, swarthy and dirty-looking—just the picture of an in-

Meredith, whom it is hard to believe would associate with such a man, is single. His ad-dress could not be learned exactly, but he lives somewhere in One Hundred and Sixth street.

Only for Detectives Hickey, Crowley and Police Capt, Reilly he would have surely escaped. He had all preparations made to leave town when they swooped down and arrested him.

The woman Stanton's right name is Adelade Edgecomb. Her father, Lewis Edgecomb, is a prominent citizen of Waverly, in Tioga County, this State.

She wrote him a letter asking him to come on and help her in this trouble.

He sent a telegram refusing. She, it is believed, was the prime instigator of the plot. It was concocted nearly two weeks ago.

On the night before the assault Stanton, Hammond, Meredith and Hermann sat up all night drinking, playing cards and discussing the programme laid out for next day. ADDIE THE PRIME MOVER, Addie said: "He generally carries $20,000 in his clothes."

in his clothes."

"We'll get it," said Meredith.

They remained together in the front room until Daly's knock was heard at the door. Then Mrs. Hammond's nerve failed her and she went to some lady friend's downstairs.

The men hid in the middle room and Addie opened the door. What followed is too well known to need repetition here.

In giving out the story Inspector Byrnes says that the men thought Daly, being a good family man, would give up easily to save his reputation.

They never dreamed of having to use the revolver, and would not have done so, but that Meredith became rattled and pulled the that Meredith became ratiled and pulled the trigger accidentally.

When arraigned before Justice Gorman this morning he did not look like a man who would lose his nerve under any circumstances. He and Hermann did not speak or notice one another at all when they met on the stand in front of the magistrate.

The two women were jammed up alongside of them, but no one of the quartet even looked at each other.

DALY'S APPIDAVIT BRAD.

Breathless silence ensued while Clerk Heimburger read Mr. Daly's complaint to the prisoners.

In the affidavit, speaking of his first visit to the Fourth avenue flat last Friday, Mr. Daly says:

When Addie opened the door she said: "Oh, Mr. Daly, I am so glad to see you, but your friends have got tired of waiting and gone away."

I started to go out, when she held me back, saying: "I have been drinking cocktails all night. Have a drink with me." She went to an inner room and returned with what looked like a bottle of cocktails, but I refused to drink and went away.

Ince a bottle of cocktains, but I refused to drink and went away.

If it was ever the intention of the people to use a drug, that must have been the time. ALL VERY CHEERFUL.

Clerk Heimburger became so nervous that he could not finish reading the complaint, and little Abe Hummel took it and finished. While it was being read Meredith calmly streked his black imperial.

Hermann laughed at the reporters and the women looked tired.

When it was finished Lawyer Howe said:

"In view of the fact, Your Honor, that one of these men is now making a full confession to inspector Byrnes, I would ask that at the end of these proceedings the men be remanded to the custody of Inspector Byrnes."

Lawyer McClelland offered an objection, but it did not amount to anything.

Phil Daly took the Bible, and swore that he had told the truth and the whole truth in his affidavit. findavit.
Then Justice Gorman asked the women in they had anything to say.

Speaking for them, Lawyer Le Barbier said:

ADDIE CONFESSES. "Nothing now. Miss Stanton has made a statement which is in Assistant District-Attorney Hartman's hands. We waive examination for the present."

Mr. Hartman, who appeared for the prosecution, sat beside the Julge, and admitted that he had a statement from the woman. He would not say what it was.

SAYS SHE KNEW DALY FOR THREE AND A HALF

An Evening World reporter learned later that in it she swore that she knew Phil Daly intimately for three years and a half. That she did not wish to harm him and that she was forced into the conspiracy by the two "Tts better not to be, than be unhappy," and no one can be happy whose system is deranged by poisonous secretions. Nearly all ills that fiesh is held to arise from torpid liver and derangement of the digestive organs. Da. Plancis Planars Puradarva Parlars corrective guartites of the liver, prevent constitution and promote good health. Buy them of your druggist. "." men.

Here it is fair to say that throughout The Evenus Wonld has taken this view of the case that Daly knew the woman, that she did not shoot, but that two men did have a hand in it, and that one of them did the shooting.

When the magistrate asked Hermann for

Is Tammany Holding Back a Big

Of course that settled it.

Merculth was equally reticent as to his address and also refused to plead. He and Hermann were remanded back to Police Headquarters.

Headquarters.

The women were committed to the Jefferson Market Prison without bail. A further hearing in the case will be had next Sunday morning, by which time Inspector Byrnes hopes to be able to have the while story straightened out.

Meantime the Inspector insists that the talk about Daly's being a victim of the badger game is all "rot."

"It is nothing more than a bold sitempt to rob a man who is generally known to carry a large sum of money.

To be a man who is generally known to carry a large sum of money.

"Why did you encourage the belief that the woman did the shooting?"

"Because a detective who tells the public what he is doing in unravelling a crime po'n's out his line of action and gives notice to the suspected persons to make their escape," he concluded. of the State of New York.

The shove is a section of the article of the Constitution relating to the punishment for bribery, which was adopted by a vote of the people, Nov. 3, 1873.

On the third floor of the tenement, 169
Avenue C.an Evening World reporter found the twenty-nine-year-old wife of Hermann.
To the reporter Mrs. Hermann said:
"My husband is a cook. He worked in the Park Avenue Hotel till last May; then went to the Grand Union Hotel, Saratoga, till about six weeks ago.
"He had engaged to go to Florida as cook next week. He was a quiet, cross man, but not ugly. Last Sunday he went out to give a little dog an airing, saying he would be in again at 9 o'clock in the evening. He did not come till next day and he was nervous and fidgety. Under this constitutional provision the boodle members of the 1884 Board of Aldermen were indicted and, during the term of District-Attorney Randolph B. Martine, were 'faithfully prosecuted" in accordance with the provision of the section quoted,

The suggestion that the present District-Attorney has rendered himself amenable to removal because of his failure to continue the faithful prosecution of the boodlers who were indicted three years ago comes from a prominent Tammanyite. He said this morning. while discussing the absorbing topic of the wish to God I had come back! I must tell the truth. I went to a woman, and I am afraid I have got into a scrape.'
But he would not tell what was the while discussing the absorbing topic of the County Democracy scheme to retain control of the Department of Public Works and the Corporation Counsel's office:

"The Counties, in their anxiety to maintain their grasp on the patronage of those two departments, fail to consider the possibility of retaliation.

"There's a Department of the county government now in their control, the head of which is in a position to exert the strongest political influence. The patronage of his office is considerable, but his power lies in his ability to control the trial of criminal indictments.

These Stories.

Sanatoga, Dec. 6.—Pedestrian George Cartwright, the Englishman who was a contestant in the recent six days' walk in New York, and who has made his headquarters here for some time, was to have been married yesterday to a Miss Hawkins, living here, but when the time for the ceremony came he failed to show up. It had been reported a few days ago that he had a wife and children in England, but he denied this and went on with arrangements for his marriage, even going so far as to furnish apartments for housekeeping. A brother of the young lady made hot search for Cartwright yesterday, and will wreak vengance on him if he inds him in this country. It is reported that Cartwright intended to go to England at once. This despatch was printed in a morning paper, and an Evening World reporter went

"He has been in office nearly a year now, and during all that time, of the dozen indictments still pending against the 1884 boodlers he has moved but one for trial, that against Thomas B. Kerr, and that trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

"The press and the public have been continually pressing him to move the trial of some of these bribe-givers and bribe-takers, but he always has some specious excuse to offer. around town in an unsuccessful attempt to He had not been seen in sporting circles for several days past, and his present whereabouts is unknown.

Billy O'Brien, the manager of the recent six day match in Madison Square Garden was six day match in Madison Square Garden was not in his office when an Evening World reporter called, but "Doe" Weatherly, formerly the champion light-weight boxer of Oxford, who is O'Brien's secretary at present, was seen uptown later in the day.

'No; I don't know where Cartwright can be found," said Weatherly. "After his shabby actions in New York the best thing he could do would be to leave. I don't know anything concerning the alleged engagement There are four judges of the Courts of

"There are four judges of the Courts of Sessions now—one more than there was in District Attorney Martine's time, and yet he found opportunity for seven of these triels.

"There is also the Court of Oyer and Terminer, which has been frequently idle because District Attorney Fellows failed to furnish it a calendar of cases.

"Col. Fellows himself has acknowledged that the calendar of that Court will be almost clear during next mouth, but he intimates that he will not move one of these most important cases then.

"The whole history of Col. Fellows's administration seems plainly to indicate his unwillingness to try these boodlers, mout of whom belonged to the organization to which he owes allegiance, and I think that his trial before the Governor on charges of failure to faithfully prosecute' could only result in his removal from office.

"Should the Counties persist in their scheme to defeat the will of the people by attempting to keep the victors at the recent election from administering the affairs of two of the most important departments of the city government it is not improbable that Col. Fellows might hear something to his disadvantage."

could do would be to leave. I don't know anything concerning the alleged engagement to be married, but I am quite certain that he has been married before, and has, or did have, a wife and family living in England.

"He acted very shabbily towards the management of the race. O'Brien paid his entrance fee, his training expenses and other bills during the race, and also advanced him some money in cash. He promised to settle everything as soon as he got his share of the gate receipts, but has not kept his promise.

"After he got his money last Monday he paid O'Brien the paltry sum of $11. When O'Brien asked him for the rest of the debt Cartwright coolly told him that he wouldn't pay it; that he (O'Brien) had advertised him to rage without the proper authority, and that all bills paid by O'Brien were on his own account. Before the walk was finished, he made a coast that he would run anybody from 10 to 100 miles for any amount, but when George Mason offered to take him up he ivantage.

THE BULLET DID ITS WORK.

ut up." Nobody at the Manhattan Athletic Club Nobody at the Manhattan Athletic Club-nad seen Cartwright recently, and the opin-non was expressed that he had left town. Where he had gone no one could tell. George Mason, the English rival of Cart-wright, said this morning that Cartwright and been boarding at the Putnam House the sast few days. Self-Inflieted Wound.

Mile. E. de Villers, who put a pistol bullet through her head yesterday in her room at the Grand Union Hotel, as told in THE EVENING WORLD'S Extra, died in Bellevue at 12.10 o'clock this morning. Her body was renoved to the Morgue to await the action of the moved to the Morgue to await the action of the Coroner.

Mr. Garrison, of the Grand Union Hotel, taking his cue from an envelope found among the suicide's belongings, telegraphed to Frederick, Md., but could learn nothing beyond the fact that Mile. de Villers had come to that place from Washington seeking employment as a teacher in the French language. Her venture failed there, and she came to this city, it is supposed, with the purpose of obtaining a position as teacher in some school. All inquiries for relatives of the dead woman have amounted to nothing except cliciting a hearsay report that she has a sister living somewhere in France.

Major Jacob Bretz, of Caritale. The contracting parties were Mr. Joseph Kinter, a school teacher of Dillsburg, York County, and Miss Mary E. Bannan, a niece of Major Bretz.

The marriage was to satisfy an election bet. The groom is a Republican and the bride a Democrat, and the conditions of the bet were that if Harrison was elected the wedding should be solemnized just one month from Election Day, and the bride must procure the marriage liceves and defray all current expenses. She carried out her part, went to the Clerk's office, procured the papers and was married in the presence of a large assembly of friends. Divorce from Her Husband.

Supreme Court, his wife, formerly Helen C. Mack, having begun suit for absolute divorce on the only statutory ground. Mrs. Bishop is twenty-five years of age, and

Mrs. Bishop is twenty-five years of age, and was married to the mind-reader Dec. 4, 1886, at Boston. It was her second marriage, she having got a divorce from her former husband, on the ground of abandonment and cruelty. Bishop had just been lienized by the Boston public, and Miss Mack, or Mrs. Loud, fell in love with him at one of his readings.

In her complaint Mrs. Bishop alleges that her husband broke his marriage vows on June 10, 1887, at the Hoffman House with a woman whose name she does not know. Bishop is believed to be at dresent in Alabama on a professional tour through the Bouth.

James Miller, aged fifteen, and Ben Meyer, aged fourteen years, were held for trial at Essex Market to-day, on a charge of stealing $120 worth of engraved rollers from their employer. James Broderick, 27 Vandam street.

What Hats to Wear.

Bombshell?

Something that the County Demooracy Did Not Foresee.

Will It Lose the District-Attorney's

Any District-Attorney who shall fail faithfully to prosecute a person charged with the violation in his county of any provision of this article, which may come to his knowledge, shall be removed from office by the Governor, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard in his defense .- Art. XV, Sec. 4, of the Constitution his ability to control the trial of criminal indictments.

"Of course I refer to the District-Attorney's office and to Col. Fellows.

"If the Counties persist in their scheme they may find it will result disastrously to Col. Fellows.

"Should he be removed his successor would undoubtedly be a Tammany Hall man, for he would be appointed by Gov. Hill, and the State Executive has not too high an opinion of the friends of Grace, Ivina and the rest to appoint one of their number.

"As to the possibility of his removal you have to but consult the provision of the constitution and his record in the matter of boodle trials.

"He has been in office nearly a year now.

He has been in office nearly a year now.

Mind Reader Washington Irving Bishop's family troubles will soon have to be aired in the Thieves of Tender Age.

Swell hatters' shapes in Mon's Black and Brown Drawns from $1.55 to $3.00. The latter is equal to say $5.00 hat in town, Hackers, Oamanay & Oo-obting and hate, S.K. sorner Genal and Broadway.

An Entirely New Light Thrown on the Auld Marriage.

It Appears to Lift Much Blame from the Woman.

Was the Young Minister Asked to Resign by the Bishop?

The other side of the story of that queer marriage between ex-Minister Harry F. Auld and Mrs. Emma H. Christie was upearthed by THE EVENING WORLD reporter this morn-

From these new developments that have turned up it would appear that Mrs. Christie may have been the aggrieved party, and that Mr. Auld might have been endeavoring to play a sharp game on the widow.

Joseph Cooke, a brother of Mrs. Christie is superintendent of the linemen at the West ern Union Telegraph Company station at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Lexington avenue. The reporter called on him this morning.

He is a quiet, reserved man and would not say much about the marriage. 'My sister," he said, " has been out of town since a week ago vesterday. She left immediately after the marriage, and I believe by the advice of her counsel.

"I believe his name is De La Mar. I knew nothing whatever of this previous marriage by contract, but from facts I have learned since of this minister's doings, I should, if I had been in my siter's ulace, have hore. had been in my sister's place, have horse-whipped him well before making him marry Me. Where is Mrs. Christic at present? queried the reporter.

"I really do not know. She is out of town and is staving there by advice."
"Do you know whether it is true that Mrs. Christie by unfair means forced Mr. Auld to marry her?"
'I know that it was false. They were legally married on March 4, 1887, and she was forced to make these things public in order to save her fair name.

"Further than that I have no knowledge.
I have never been interested enough to in-

I have never been interested enough to inquire."

"Do you know Mr. Auld?"

"I do, and I can't say that I have any great respect for him."

"Then there was no other reason for your sister's marriage than you have stated?"

"None that I know of. Now, if you will go to Mr. Henry G. Cooper, at 2662 Third avenue, I am confident you will get the information you desire. I believe he knows all about the case."

The reporter first called on Lawyer De La Mar, at 110 East One Hundred and Twenty-iffth street. That gentleman denied that he was acting as Mrs. Christie's counsel.

"In fact," he said, "I have never seen the lady.

lady.

I admit that I know a little about the case, but I'd rather not divulge it. You go and see Mr. Cooper, at 2662 Third avenue. He knows all about it and gave me what little

THE EVENING WORLD man having been twice advised to see Mr. Cooper, boarded a North Third avenue car and jumped off at Mr. Cooper's office.

The gentleman was in and alone. He is a real-estate dealer and has lived in the neighborhood of Mr. Auld's church for nearly twenty years.

"Mr. Cooper," began The Evening World man, "I have been twice advised to see you in reference to the marriage of Mr.
Henry Auld to Miss Emma H. Christie."

"Well, really," besitated Mr. Cooper, "I'd rather not be mixed up in the affair."
"But you know all about it, and it is only fair to both purties and the public that the correct version of this story should be given," persisted the reporter. "Well, I have known Mrs. Christie ever

"Well, I have known Mrs. Christie ever since she wore short dresses and the reports about her being a designing widow and a bad woman are entirely untrue.

"This Mr. Auld." continued Mr. Cooper. "is either a fool or a knave, and from what I know I should say that he belongs to the latter class.

"In the first place he says he never loved Mrs. Christie. Now his attentions to Mrs. Christie about two years ago, when that lady first joined St. Mary's Church, were remarked by every one and as plain as the nose on your face.

marked by every one and as plain as the nose on your face.

'He was in love with her. Now on the 4th of March a year ago, in the Lenten season, he, an Episcopal minister, took Mrs. Christie down to St. Paul's Church on Broadway, before an Episcopal elergyman, for the purpose of marrying her when he knew that no minister of that denomination would perform the ceremony.

mony.

"The minister, Dr. Thompson, of course (seclined, and then Mr. Auld, with his own hand, wrote the contract as published, and turned to Mrs. Christie, saying: 'Emma, read that and sign. It will answer as well. We will have the blessing after Lent is over,'

"Satisfied, Mrs. Christie signed. A copy was made and given to her. Dr. Auld kept the original.

the original.
"To all intents and purposes they were man and wife and lived as such."
"Are you positive of this," asked the reporter.

"I am. For fur her proof I tell you this, although it is not generally known. When Mrs. Christie was sick six months ago her illness was caused by a miscarriage."

"Are you sure of this also?" asked the reporter.

"I was so informed by one of the family, and I believe it. Now to continue. It was during this sickness that Mr. Auld became estranged. When Mrs. Christie recovered he told her that his views towards her had he told her that his views towards her had changed.

"Then she woke up. She went to Bishop Potter with her copy contract. She told him the whole story. He said it was a legal marriage. Then Mrs. Christie went back and demanded the original contract from Mr. Auld.

"He coolly informed her that he had burned it.

"How dare you do that? she exclaimed, and then she said she would take legal proceedings. The next day she received the contract from Mr. Auld.

"Another visit to Bishop Potter aroused that reverend gentleman's ire. He sat down at his desk and penned a letter to Mr. Auld.

"I have asked for his resignation,' be said simply.

simply.

"Then Mrs. Christic returned home satisfied. She afterwards found that the Bishop had told Mr. Auld by letter that he was To-Morrow, Saturday, December 8th, will be the last day of the half-price sale for the balance of broken lots of high grade Overcoats and Suits for men and boys at Mesars. Vogel Brothers, Eighth Avenue and Forty-second Street.

legally married and advising him to take the blessing.

"This was about three weeks before the last marriage. How that took place you already know. She was dragged into a street-car and up to the Rev. Victor C. Smith's house.

"Mr. Auld's actions were simply disgraceful. He dressed himself in his oldest clothes, his hair was unkempt, and when he made that speech declaring that he was a pauper and unable to support her, she showed the contract to the clergyman.

"Mr. Auld grabbed for it, but it would have done him no good, for it was simply a copy.

"When asked for the ring be spanned."

When asked for the ring he snapped 'I haven't got any.' When told to join

'I haven't got any.' When told to join hands he grabbed at her hand like a hungry fish snaps at bait.

'That ceremony was a mockery, for when he solemnly declared to love, cherish and keep her, in the next breath he denied his yow and said he would never live with her.

'Then he abruptly left, leaving Mrs. Christie or Auld to come home alone in a horse-car.

car.

"Are these the actions of an honest, innocent clergyman, such as he is posing like

AND HIS NAME WAS PAT MALLOY.

He Was a Tartar for the "Times"-Their Case Receives a Damaging Blow. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, Dec. 7.—Pat Malloy, the recusant witness, was haled before the Parnell Commission this morning.

He proved a most unsatisfactory witness. To

He proved a most unsatisfactory witness. To the surprise of the Court and the mortification of the Times's comsel he swore he knew nothing to connect the Irish leaders with the crimes at Phonix Park and elsewhere.

He denied everything that he was expected to reveal by the prosecution, and with skilful questioning the Attorney-Ceneral could get nothing out of him.

It appeared that the witness knew little of the crimes that had been perpetrated in Ireland beyond what was familiar to everybody; and it came out that the Times's agent had cooked up the charges to which the witness was expected to testify. o testify.

This disclosure has had a most damaging effect in the Times's case.

Corresive Sublimate in the Water. HEMPSTEAD, Dec. 7.—The family of Andrev La Farge was made violently sick yesterday by frinking water in which corrosive sublimate habeen poured. All day Mr. La Farge lay in great distress. His two daughters also suffered in-tensely. Fortunately his wife, who did not drink so freely of the water as her husband and daughters, was but slightly affected and was able to attend to their sufferings. To-day all parties are out of danger. How the poison came in the water is not known.

Going for a Tour and a Tretter. Henry J. Jacobs, the well-known manager ar oprietor of several theatres, starts on a tour proprietor of several theatres, starts on a tour to the West Dec. 12, and intends to be gone a month. He has made arrangements with the Golden City Railroad to take a special car from Council Bluffs to San Francisco. When he re-turns he will bring with him the celebrated trotter, Queen May, worth $3,750, which is to be presented to his son, Marcus J. Jacobs.

codwin's Body Recovered This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
KENNEBUNK, Me., Dec. 7.—At the burning of the sash and blind factory last night Edwin Goodwin lost his life. He went into the build-ing to start the fire-pump and was suffocated, His body was recovered this morning, badly-burned below the waist. John Maloney, Swensen Jepsen and Joe Lick-ville on suspicion of being the murderer for Gardener Patrick Kelly, were this morning remanded by Coroner Rooney, in Brooklyn, to await the result of the inquest. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD ! NARBUA, N. H., Dec. 7.-F. A. Moore, widely known journalist and Washington correspondent, died at the residence of his sister, Mrs.

Trouble in the Spanish Cabinet. LONDON, Dec. 7. - Gen. Cassola, Spanish Minster of War, has resigned his portfolio.

American Cotton Oli.
Atch., Topeka & Santa Fe
Canada Southern.
Canadian Pacific.
Cleve, Col. Cin. & Ind.
Chesapeake & Ohio.
Chicago Gas Trust.
Chicago, St. Louis & Pitta.
Chicago, M. Louis & Pitta.
Chicago, M. L. & Chicago, St. Louis & Pitta.
Chicago, M. & S. B. Paul. hicago & Korthwest, hicago, Mil. & St. Paul, hicago, Mil. & St. Paul, hicago, Mil. & St. Paul pfd, hicago, Rock Island & Pacific, hicago & Eastern Illinois, hicago & Eastern Illinois pfd. ameron Coal Delaware, Lackawanna & Westerr Delaware & Hudson Denver & Rio Grande pfd...... Aks Shore. Western Lake Eric & Western pfd., Lake Eric & Western pfd., Louisville & Nashville.... our: Pacific. our!, Kansas & Tes Jersey Central. York Central. & Now England. Y & Now England.
Y Chicago & St. Louis.
Y Chicago & St. L. 2d pfd
Y Lake Eris & Western
Y Lake Eris & Western pfd.
Y Susq. & Western pfd.
Y Susq. & Western pfd.
urfolk & Western pfd.
urfolk & Western pfd.
pthern Pacific.
pthern Pacific pfd.
lo & Mississippi. Philadelphis & Reading.
Poorts, Decatur & Evansville,
Pullman Paisce Car Co.
Rich. & West Point Ter.
Rich.
Rich. A West Point Research
Rich.
Rich. & Ranch & Transisson pfd.
Toras Pacific.
Term. Coal & Fron.
Term. Coal & Fron.
Union Pacific.
Wab. St. Lonis & Pacific pfd.
Western Union Telugraph.
Wheeling & Lake Erie.

New York Markets.

Wheat.—May opened $6c. below last night's closing quotation, at $1.11\si, and advanced to $1.11\si, at noon the quotation was $1.11\si, bee. opened at $1.05\sic; Jan., $1.06; March, $1.08\sic, Market about steady. Chicago steady. Liverpool dull.

Corros.—Futures opened barely steady at 3 points decline from last night's closing prices. Dec., 9.53, Jan., 9.7; Feb., 9.80; March, 0.92. April. 10.02; May, 10.12; June. 10.21. Juny, 10.27; Aug., 10.33; Sept., 9.94. Liverpool casy.

10.27; Aug. 10.33; Sept. 9.94. Liverpool casy.
Copyriz.—The market opened barely steady at from 20 to 30 points points decline. Dec. 15.35; Jan. 15.60; Feb. 15.70; March, 15.75; April, 15.80; May, 15.90; June, 15.90; July and Aug. 16c.; Sept. and Oct., 16.05; Nov., 16.10. Hamburg and Havre quiet.
Petroleum.—Certificates opened firm at 804c., 1 point above last night's closing price. There was another sharp advance and during the morning the quotation went as high as 914c. Before noon, however, the market eased a little and the quotation declined to 904c.

The entire variety of Boys' and Children's Havs and Cars, from manufactures' earniles, marked only file. Ordinary prices elsewhere 61 to 51, 75. All the newest shapes. Hackbury, Lukaky & Co., Colothing nod Hate, N. & cor. Canal and Broadway.

Give Up That Unlawfully Seized Ship.

If You Don't Uncle Sam Will Be Down With His Gun.

Secretary Whitney Orders Three Vessels to Prepare for Sea.

Recruits Ordered from Boston to Man the WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. Secretary Whitney has ordered Rear-Admiral Gherardi, Commandant of the New York Navy-Yard, to place the Galena, Richmond and Yantic in readiness for sea at once. The Government has asked Hayti to release the Haytian Republic, and if this is not done action will be taken to compel it. The Richmond is to be used as the flagship of the expedition. The controversy has now settled down to this ultimatum to Hayti : "Give up the unlawfully seized ship or take the copse-four recruits have been ordered to Brooklyn. They are to man the vessels preparing fo war with Hayti.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENIES WORLD.] BOSTON, Dec. 7.—One hundred and forty-

READY TO BLOW UP HAYTL.

Tons of Powder and Gun Cotton. The Brooklyn Navy-Yard was in a ferment of warlike activity this morning. In accordance with a despatch received from the Navy Department ordering Rear-Admiral Gherardi to get the corvette Galena ready for sea immediately, all corvotte Galena ready for sea immediately, all that vessel's supplies were put aboard her except the powder, which is expected to be stowed away by nightfall.

Rear-Admiral Cherardi has not yet received instructions as to the Galena's destination, hus he said it might be Hayti. On the other hand, the vessel might be ordered on a cruise around the Horn or on a general West Indian cruise.

Though the Galena's armament is not of the latest type, her deck bristles with formidable-looking cannon. They consist of one 69-pound 5-8-10-inch breech-loading rifle, one 8-inch muzzle-loading rifle, throwing a projectile of 180 pounds, which explodes by impact, and also the regulation fune-shell; six 9-inch smoothbore Dahlgrens, firing a 90-pound shot; one Gatling gun and one 3-inch breech-loading rifle and two 30-pound breech-loaders. She will take with her five tons of powder and 400 pounds of gun-ootton, to be used in torpedoes. lyke, the three men arrested yesterday in Park-

Was Drunk and Wouldn't Wait for Suppor (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,)
GREAT FALLS, N. H., Dec. 7.—Mrs. J. A. Pray keeps a boarding-house here. Yesterday afternoon Edward Collins, a boarder, came into her house intoxicated and asked her to get him something to eat. She complied and set a lunch before him, which he quickly ate. He asked for more, and she, being very busy, asked him pleasantly to wait until supper-time, whereupon he arose from his chair, deliberately struck her with his fist, then violently threw her to the floor, breaking her hip and otherwise injuring her.

The Trunk Lines Agree According to the officials, the trunk lines wa is over and the rates will go back to the normal schedule. Scouts will go out, offering the usual concessions to secure traffic. It is said there will be no danger of a further difference for a

Not Quite 82 a Syllable. Charles Schalchendenburger's name twined its polysyllabic length gracefully over the docket as Essex Market Police Court this morning. The simple charge was that of interfering with a policeman. He was fined $10. To Blackwell's for the Holldays.

Thirty-six tramps, who had been guests of Capt. Cassidy, of the Eldridge street station, were introduced to Judge Duffy at Essen Market to-day and sent to rusticate on Blackwell's Island for a month.

Rosa Links Released. Rosa Links, the young woman from Chicago, on whose trial on Tuesday for the theft of a sealskin sacque from Stern Bros. store the jury disagreed, was discharged by Judge Gilder-sleeve this morning.

Entries for To-Morrow at Guttenburg. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,] NORTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., Dec. 7. The entries for Saturday, Dec. 8, are as fol-

The entries for Saturday, Dec. 8, are as follows:

First Race—Purse $200; five furious, for maiden two-year-olds.—My Namise O, colt, 115; Now Then, 125; Gioling, 115; Spry Colt, 115; Frank Wheelen, 115; Laborer, 115; Spry Colt, 115; Frank Wheelen, 115; Laborer, 115; Gracksman, 115; Ayals, 112; W. G. Burns, 112; Lizzie Betts geiding, 115; Speedwee, 117; Skip, 112; Gray Gown, 112; Hollowood, 113; Lady Arrober, 112; Gray Gown, 112; Hollowood, 113; Lady Arrober, 112; Gray Gown, 112; Hollowood, 113; Lady Arrober, 112; Sizzie Betts geiding, 115; Speedwee, 110; Second Race—Purse $200; six and one-half furious; selling allowances. Master Walter, 102; Gloude, 107; Nimred, 105; Armstrong, 104; Alice, 103; Courtest, 102; Walker, 102; Carrie G, 100; Saisak, 100; Feeror, 100; Dago, 101; California, 99; Suzia Douglass geiding, 198; Landsock, 797; Alax, T., VY lb.

Third Race—Purse $200; siven furious; selling allowances. Biltzard, 112; Reyssone, 123; Gloudesch, 112; Charlie, 114; Burson, 115; Gloudesch, 116; Arrobe, 115; Gloudesch, 116; Arrobe, 116; Arrobe, 116; Arrobe, 117; Silver Star, 117; Gloudesch, 118; Walter, 118; Manhatash, 110; Fingrair, 117; Franke W., 117; Fred Davis, 116; Dynamite, 116; Louax, 112; Wanhoe, 112; Rebel Resust, 112; Foodmoke, 112; Manhatash, 110; Fat Oakier, 107; Count Loua, 107; Fagm, 107; Gold Star, 107; Count Loua, 107; Fagm, 107; Gold Star, 107; Manie Hay, 107; Mass Mouse, 107; Warren, 104; Mass, 106; Counter, 100; Star, 107; Mass, 100; Gold Star, 107; Jonathes, 104; Franke M., 107; Fagm, 107; Gold Star, 107; Manie Hay, 107; Mass Mouse, 107; Warren, 108; Local Base consiled, 100; Tyrone, 103; Jon Mitchell, 104; Medical Base consiled, 100; Tyrone, 103; Jon Mitchell, 104; Medical Base consiled, 104; Marke, 107; Bob May, 107; Marce, 109; Gorge Local Base, 100; Gray Marce, 100; Local Base, 100; Gorge Local Base, 100; Gorge Local Base, 100; Franke B., 102; Plancecod golding, 102; Debret Local Base, 100; Franke B., 102; Plancecod golding, 102; Debret Local Base, 102; Franke B., 102; Plancecod golding,

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermo

1888, 1887, 1881, 1881, 1887, 1881, 1887,